Nursing, and Business. View the winning papers here.

Dr. Rosalind Wynne is a Center for Advanced Communications (CAC) faculty member and currently has a research contract from the US Army Research Office on a proposal titled, "Nano-Spectrometers with Microstructured Optical Fibers for Chemical Sensing".